

Daniel Davis

Daniel Davis has a broad background in Finance and Accounting with 10 years in mortgage lending and 15 years in accounting. Working with multiple Fortune 500 companies, both in new home building and mortgage lending, as well as global public accounting and investment banks, Daniel brings a strong organizational, collaborative, and governance background to any leadership role.

Daniel is currently the Vice President of Accounting Policy & Advisory at VyStar Credit Union in Jacksonville, FL. In this role, he oversees the credit union's application of accounting policy in accordance with US GAAP and NCUA regulatory requirements. Daniel has held positions in audit for Deloitte & Touche, LLP and Fidelity National Financial, Inc. Additionally, he has held leadership positions in accounting and finance at Deutsche Bank and Macquarie Bank.

Daniel has served as a Trustee for Avondale United Methodist Church and as President of the Board of Directors at Florida Christian Apartments and Sundale Manor. Daniel has a Master of Accountancy from Stetson University and a CPA license in the State of Florida. Originally from Orlando, he has lived in Jacksonville for over 23 years, currently in the Avondale neighborhood. Daniel is married and has 2 kids, which occupy most of his time. When not spending time with family, Daniel loves music and sports. A life-long Seminoles fan, he enjoys watching football any time he has the opportunity.
